Month in Review – History Center – December 2013

Avalon Oral History Project

 Avalon History Center curator J. Angemi created documents, and ran some promotion, for the upcoming Oral History Project. The projects main goal will include collecting Avalon based memories and processing them into an audio and written library collection. Documents have been created for future interviewers to effectively collect stories relevant to Avalon's 20th century history.

Above: Ads that have run through the Borough of Avalon website & newsletter

2nd Annual Holiday at the History Center

 The Avalon History Center & Historical Society ran a holiday oriented event on December 7th from 4-7 pm. The event included light hors devoirs and a music accompaniment of Stephanie Sussmeir on the Harp.

Above: Photograph of Harpist and party revelers

Researchers Served

• The Avalon History Center served one researcher for the month of December. The research in question dealt with a particular early island residence.

Special Services Visit

The Woodbine Developmental Center scheduled a visit during the month of December.
During the visit Center curator J. Angemi escorted 15 gentlemen on a short tour of the museum.

Digitization Project

• The Avalon Digitization project has continued progress with creation documents and assessments of certain parts of the collection that will used for this project, most notably the Avalon Yacht Club yearbooks, and parts of our historic photo collection.

Civic Organizations meet at the History Center's Library Room.

• The Avalon Garden and Women's Civic Club all hosted their monthly meetings at the History Center.